Helping students stay healthier from head to toe

Aetna Student HealthSM Insurance Ancillary Products

It's simple really.

When your students have peace of mind, they can perform better in school and in life.

But for today's students, that's not so simple. Not when 75 percent of them are balancing school with jobs, mortgages, marriage, kids — or some combination.¹

That's where we come in

Aetna is a longtime leader² in student health insurance.

And we get it. You want to protect your students' health and create an environment in which they can succeed.

That's why we offer products and services to supplement our medical plans.
